Letter from the Sysop

Dear Reader

Thank you for requesting our mini catalogue. We hope you will find the following pages interesting and informative.

SOFTEL Online Systems was founded in 1984, and since then has built an unparalleled reputation for providing members with the latest in software, world-wide conferencing, E-Mail and many other online services. We like to feel we have the features and benefits of many of the large services, while retaining the feel and personal touch of the smaller bulletin board systems. We are set up to serve you, our customer, and we do so through free telephone support and easy to use software.

We are continually introducing new and exciting products and services to make your time online more enjoyable. We have the very latest files each week from overseas. Why worry about dialling out to an overseas system for new files, when you can grab 'em right here on SOFTEL?

We are justifiably very proud of our organisation, and you, its members. We are continually being told we are the best bulletin board and information system in the country. We have you to thank for that! Without your ongoing support we would not survive.

I hope you will find the contents of this catalogue useful, and that you'll give us a call, either to register, or for a demonstration. Remember you can call our voice number below at any time during business hours. We are waiting for your call.

Thanks for considering SOFTEL Online Systems.
